

COLLECTING CHUTE - ARH

The collecting chute ARH is mounted on the cross bar of an injection moulding machine via Velcro®. It safely catches the moulded parts after demoulding and transfers them into the installed funnel of the machine. In addition, the chute is constructed extra flat and space-saving.

PRODUCT FEATURES

- Mounted via Velcro® on the cross bar
- Extra flat and space-saving construction
- Different materials available, depending on the application